RE: Appointment as Special Assistant Attorney General

Dear Mr. Grueskin:

This letter appoints you as a Special Assistant Attorney General. Under this appointment you will provide legal services in connection with Complaint No. 18-22 pending against Governor John Hickenlooper before the Colorado Independent Ethics Commission ("the Litigation"). You will be working under the direction of Jacki Cooper Melmed, Chief Legal Counsel for the Office of the Governor. Your appointment is effective immediately and will continue until final resolution of the Litigation or until revoked in writing, whichever comes first.

Your appointment is a limited one. It does not authorize you to act on behalf of or represent the Governor or any other state agency or official in any other capacity. You may not, on behalf of any state officer or agency, receive any notices, documents or papers of any kind not related to your duties in connection with the Litigation. During your appointment, if, for whatever reason, your employment with Recht Kornfeld PC terminates, within 10 calendar days prior to your departure from Recht Kornfeld PC, you are required to notify me, in writing, of your departure and the departure date.

You are to be compensated for this work by the Office of the Governor. The terms and conditions of your engagement are described in your arrangements with the Governor's Office.

Sincerely,

FOR THE ATTORNEY GENERAL
